FIRST ADD LEAD

Berlin, via wireless to the Associated Press from Nauen, Germany to Saville, L. I., August 24.—German armies under Prince Rubrecht of Bavaria, Crown Prince Wilhelm and Grand Duke Albrecht are vigorously pursuing the French.

The army under Rubrecht captured 150 guns at Lunneville, Blamont and Cirey (in the French departments of Meurthe and Moselle).

The army commanded by the Crown Prince pursued the French beyond Longwy. The Germans are west of the river Meuse and advancing against Maubeuze. They have defeated an English brigade of cavalry.

The army commanded by Grand Duke Albrecht of Wuertemberg has defeated a French army at Neufchateau. It captured many guns, flags and prisoners, including several generals.

By Associated Press.

Paris, Aug. 24.—The following official announcement was made here today: "The great battle between the greater part of the forces of England and France against the bulk of the German army continues today. The mission of the English and the French is to hold virtually the entire German army in Belgium while our Russian allies pursue their successes in the East."

Paris, August 24.—An official announcement made this afternoon says that Lunneville, Amance and Dieulard in the department of Meurthe and Moselle, have been occupied by the Germans. The French front otherwise has not been modified.

The general engagement continues with desperation. In the wording of an official communication given out this afternoon, "already both sides have suffered serious losses."

"Forces hold the front, roughly speaking, between Badonville and Lunneville. An army from the north of Wavre is approaching Neuchateau and is attacking the German forces which have defiled through Luxembourg and are now upon the right bank of the Semois. Another army from the direction of Sedan has crossed the department of Ardennes and is engaging the German army corps which has been proceeding between the river Lesse and the river Meuse. A third army corps from the neighborhood of Chimay is advancing to attack the German right between the river Sambre and the river Meuse. This third army is supported by an English army."

By Associated Press.

London, Aug. 24.—The official bureau of information today gave out the following announcement: "British forces were engaged all day Sunday and until after dark with the enemy in the neighborhood of Mons, Belgium. They held their ground."

By Associated Press.

Udine, Italy, Aug. 24.—Reports here from Vienna are to the effect that the Austrians are about to abandon their operations against the Servians on the Drina river, in order to concentrate their forces against the Russian advance.

The difficulties of the campaign against Servia have been redoubled by the troubles in Bosnia.

By Associated Press.

London, Aug. 24.—An Exchange Telegraph Company dispatch from Nish, Servia, referring to the Servian victory on the Drina, says the Servian artillery sank a number of the enemy's boats including 8 transports carrying troops. The dispatch says the Austrians are massing on the banks of the Drina and preparing, by a desperate attempt, to regain lost ground.

Edward Albert, the prince of Wales, heir to the throne of Great Britain, has received a commission in the regular army. The picture shows the prince in the uniform of an infantryman marching with others as a common soldier.

By Associated Press.

Paris, August 24.—The Petit Journal publishes the following details of the fighting around Liege obtained by it from a Belgian officer: "German troops rushed on the barbed wire defenses before the forts of Liege in the darkness of night. A very strong current of electricity was being maintained in these wires and as a result the first ranks of the Germans were electrocuted.

SUFFS PLEAD WITH LEADERS

By Associated Press.

Columbus, O., August 24.—Democratic, Republican and Progressive leaders, who are here today in advance of tonight's meetings when final arrangements for the three state platform conventions tomorrow will be made, found interest centered in three questions—woman suffrage, liquor traffic and taxation. All three state central committees at tonight's meetings will name campaign chairmen and secretaries and complete appointment of executive committees.

It is expected that W. L. Finley will be re-elected campaign manager for the Democrats. Edwin Jones, of Jackson, will probably be named for that position by the Republicans. Walter F. Brown, of Toledo, will lead the Progressives. With Mrs.

Harriett Taylor Upton, of Warren, O., as their leader, delegations of suffrage workers have planned to appear before the Resolutions committees of all three parties in an attempt to induce the committees to endorse woman suffrage. The Progressives had already declared in favor of woman suffrage.

By Associated Press.

Paris, Aug. 24.—A rumor is in circulation in Paris this morning that the Germans have occupied the town of Nancy. This report, however, lacked confirmation.

Berlin, August 24.—Henry S. Breckinridge, assistant secretary of war at Washington, and ten officers from the American cruiser, Tennessee, arrived in Berlin Sunday morning on a special train from Holland. They are bringing gold coin sent by the American government for the succor of needy Americans in Germany.

London, August 24.—A dispatch received here from Paris says that according to official announcement in the French capital the Germans are making a great effort against Namur which is resisting vigorously. All the line forts are still holding out. The entire Belgian army had been concentrated and intrenched at Antwerp.

They had paid in the aggregate, $200,000 for their passage, on conditions that the vessel be turned over to the refugees and go direct to New York. Each passenger paid $250 in gold, as a minimum for first class cabin accommodations.

GOVERNMENT FOR PEOPLE
IS URGED BY GEN. VILLA

By Associated Press.

Chihuahua, Mexico, August 24.—General Villa today issued a statement regarding his relation with the Carranza government at Mexico City. He said: "I have no personal feeling in this matter against Carranza. This country should not again be under military government. The armies by our constitution are secondary to the constituted government, and it is now time that the country should be governed by the people, for the people, and not as heretofore governed by a military clique whose only object is personal welfare and not the welfare of the masses.

"I desire the moral help of the American people in this political fight I am now waging. I consider myself the moral champion to procure by all honorable means for the down-trodden countrymen, justice, at the same time showing them their obligations towards law and order."

GERMAN THREATS

By Associated Press.

London, August 24.—The London newspapers today quote a German newspaper, the Tagliche Rundschau, as declaring that Belgium bitterly will rue the day she dared to oppose her mighty neighbor, Great Britain, the German newspaper also says, will pay dearly for her interference in this war by seeing the permanent establishment of a German naval base on the coast of Belgium. The Pan-Germanic organ declares that portions of Belgium now overrun by the German army will be permanently incorporated in the German empire.

They were heard for hours and indicated that the Germans are making a tremendous effort to clear this long standing danger from their line of supply and that to this end they have brought their heaviest howitzers into action.

London, Aug. 24.—The big engagement in Belgium is along a great line extending from Mons to the Luxembourg frontier. The French have everywhere taken the offensive and their action is going on regularly in unison with action by the English army.

In the official communiqué from Paris it is said that in this, the first effective movement of the French, they have before them practically the entire German army in active and reserve formations. The field of operations, especially upon the French right, is wooded and difficult, and it is believed that the battle will last several days. Charleroi is the center of the attack.

FRENCH REVERSE IS ACKNOWLEDGED

Paris, Aug. 24.—The Temps prints a summary of the war situation which says:

"Our troops in Lorraine, who were violently attacked by far more numerous forces, have fallen back, leaving prisoners and some guns in the enemy's hands. We unhesitatingly affirm that there is nothing serious, nothing disturbing in any form in this movement. The chief German forces are in Belgium. If we are victorious in the great battle which has already commenced there, the Germans who have penetrated Lorraine will be rapidly withdrawn. Even an unfavorable result of the first battle need not discourage us."

Russians Advancing.

Russian troops are pushing forward toward Koenigsberg, the most important city in eastern Germany, following their victory at Gumbinnen. The Russians have occupied Insterburg, thirty miles inside the German frontier.

Three army corps arrived at Insterburg to reinforce the czar's troops in their invasion. The Russians captured eight German cannon and many prisoners.

On the Galician front the Austrians have suffered heavy losses.

In engagements at Gorodok and Krasnik the Russians captured six officers and 250 German soldiers.

General Von Armin, commander of the German troops now occupying Brussels, issued a notice warning the population to refrain from aggressive acts against the troops. He demands of the city lodging and food supplies.

Brussels remains quiet and dignified. The cafes are still open. Two-thirds of the shops are shut. According to the officers the objective of the German troops is Mons, but the soldiers say that certain regiments are bound for Antwerp and the northwest.

The official British news bureau issued the following statement: "The admiralty wishes to draw attention to the previous warnings to neutrals of the dangers of traversing the North sea. The Germans are continuing their practice of scattering mines in indiscriminately upon the ordinary trade routes. In consequence neutral ships, no matter what their destination, are exposed to great danger."

SERVIANS WIN

Rome, Aug. 24.—The Servian army, according to official announcements from Nish, has gained a great victory over the Austrians at Mount Pazar and the river Zadar. On the northern front there is only a feeble bombardment of Belgrade. The Servian artillery has destroyed three Austrian steamships.

ZEPPELIN DOWNED

Paris, Aug. 24.—The French war ministry issued the following: "Zeppelin No. 8 has been brought down and destroyed."

CABINET MAKERS CALLED TOGETHER

Convention of Three Parties at Columbus Tomorrow.

ALL CANDIDATES TO TAKE PART

Campbell Will Preside Over Democratic Gathering, Fess Over the Republican and Sullivan Over the Progressives—Prohibition and Woman Suffrage the Big Issues Before Republicans and Democrats.

Columbus, Aug. 24.—This city will tomorrow entertain three state platform conventions of the Democratic, Progressive and Republican parties. There will be upward of 1,300 delegates in the city, consisting of candidates for state offices, candidates for members of the general assembly, chairmen of county central and county executive committees, and members of the state central and state executive committees.

The Democratic state convention will meet at Memorial hall tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. James E. Campbell will be chairman and Percy A. Walling of Circleville secretary.

The Republican meeting will be held at 10 a. m. at the Southern theater. Congressman S. E. Fess is to preside and Malcolm Jennings will be secretary.

The Progressives will gather at the Chamber of Commerce auditorium at 11:45 and John L. Sullivan of East Liverpool will be chairman and C. L. Thurber of Columbus secretary.

Recesses will be taken by the three conventions and the big events of the day will come off in the afternoon.

Congressmen to Attend.

Attending these conventions will be the respective party leaders from every nook and corner of Ohio. There will be present all three candidates for the United States senatorship, all three candidates for governor, as well as three candidates for every other place on the state ticket. It is expected that all of these candidates will have an opportunity of speaking to the crowds who are certain to attend these meetings, while the committees on credentials, resolutions, etc., are making their reports.

All of the Ohio delegation in Washington, both Democratic and Republican, will be in Columbus to attend the

GERMANS CLAIMING VICTORIES

Washington, Aug. 24.—The German embassy here received its first reports from Germany since the cutting of the Azores cable, nearly three weeks ago. These dispatches came by wireless to Sayville, L. I., which is a German owned station. Three dispatches were received in all, two reporting victories for the German forces and the third stating that Germany had made no reply to the Japanese ultimatum.

The first dispatch was as follows: "The German guns since Friday evening have been thundering at Namur. Very soon new Zeppelins will be ready for work on the Belgian coast and the English channel. North of Metz the German army under Crown Prince William is advancing on both sides of Longwy and has defeated and forced the French back. The army under the Bavarian Crown Prince Ruprecht, which, as already reported, won a victory at Lorraine, is pursuing the beaten enemy and has reached Lunéville, whence it is continuing forward today."

The second dispatch read: "Strong Russian forces have been advancing against Gumbinnen. The First German army corps turned against them Aug. 20, checked the Russians and secured 8,000 prisoners and eight guns. A German cavalry division took 500 prisoners after fighting two Russian cavalry divisions. The French attempt to invade upper Alsace was frustrated by the defenders. In Lorraine the French army is retiring from the frontier."

The New Political Order

That will be a great gathering of the "faithful" at the capital city of the state tomorrow.

In years gone by a state convention of either one of the great political parties was considered quite an event and there was strife among the larger cities of the state for the honor of "entertaining" a state convention to say nothing of receiving the profits in dollars and cents which found its way directly into the pockets of the hotel keepers, restaurateurs and cafe proprietors and indirectly to the butchers, bakers and candlestick makers in all walks of the commercial world of the city chosen.

Columbus, Toledo, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Dayton, Akron and numerous other cities were, annually, on the ground before the committee vested with jurisdiction to choose the convention city, presenting their several claims to greatness and anxious to carry off the prize.

Nothing of that kind now.

The State convention of each and all of the three largest political parties in Ohio—Democratic, Republican and Progressive—are to be held in Columbus on the same day.

Since the adoption of the primary law and the selection of candidates on the state ticket by a direct vote of the party voters, since each candidate must declare in detail in his campaign for the party nomination, just what his political principles are and since, by their votes in the primary elections, the party voters, in a manner, declare what the party platform shall be, there is not so much uncertainty and consequently not so much interest attaching to these political gatherings which, under the primary election law, take the place of and are still known by the name of State conventions.

To be sure there is a possibility that some delegates may "jump the traces" and ramble about in political preserves which have been placarded as closed by the party voters. Such a possibility is remote and such an occurrence so improbable that it fails to excite the interest of the masses.

In the main the same old human faces and forms will be found at the State conventions tomorrow declaring the party platforms and principles—recording, so to speak, the edict of the party voters—as in the old days before the primary election law was enacted, but there will not be so many of them participating. They will not be so much in evidence except in the final results. The primary election law has not changed the actual leadership.

One thing is certain, however, and that is that the facilities for committing political suicide are much better now than ever before.

The political leader, who, having given his promise to and accepted his instructions from the party voters, dares go contrary, will be shorn of his authority in short order. While the leaders, in a measure, still lead, they are much more easy to reach and dethrone than formerly.

It took a long time to pull the leaders who defied the known will of the party voters from their places of power under the old plan. It is easy under the new plan and consequently there is much complaint about the new law on the part of the leaders and much praise for it by the party voters.

Tomorrow is a red letter day—an epoch—in the history of Ohio polities. It may mark the rise of new political stars and it may mark the setting of others, depending entirely upon the demeanor of the delegates.

There can be no doubt about the will of the party voters and any delegate to either one of the political gatherings Tuesday who undertakes to go contrary to that will must realize very soon that he has signed his political death warrant.

There is to be no sidestepping, no jockeying.

Explanations which do not explain and political trickery which amounts to downright dishonesty will not be available to stay the avenging hand of the party voters as they were formerly.

It's a plain case of obeying orders or suffering the consequences.

Racial Pride Involved In War Between Austria and Servia

By WILLIAM W. ROCKHILL, Former United States Ambassador to Russia and Turkey

WAR BETWEEN AUSTRIA AND SERVIA IS BUT A NATURAL RESULT OF THE AGITATION LOOKING TO THE COMBINING OF THE SLAV ELEMENTS INTO A KINGDOM OF THEIR OWN. IT IS A RACIAL QUESTION—THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE CREATION OF NATIONALITIES THAT HAS BEEN COMING ON FOR YEARS. NATIONAL HONOR AND RACIAL PRIDE ARE INVOLVED.

If Austria carries her point and crushes the southern Slavs it will be hard for Russia to bear and I doubt if the Slavs can be kept down permanently. Russia is their great protector. She has a sentimental interest in them as well as a political one.

Poetry For Today

FAITH'S SUPREMACY.

I opened wide the portals of my heart
Love's coming to forestall;
Then sat me down, a little way apart,
Content withal.

Hope, peeping through, beheld the
speeding day.
And ventured through,
In vain I called her footsteps to allay.
As on she flew.

Then turning back, I saw within my heart
Fear crouching low.

"I always come," he said, "when
hope departs,
Law plans it so."

"Nay, if you come, I go," I cried, and bed

Until I spied
Faith standing so serene and glad,
My steps to guide.

Gently she turned my feet and led me
back so calmly home.
And lo! there Love and Hope in waiting sat,
And fear had gone.

The British Crown.

The present crown of the English king was originally made for Queen Victoria at her coronation in 1838. The principal jewels were taken from older crowns. The most noted stone is the great ruby which was given to the Black Prince by Peter the Cruel after the battle of Navarrete in 1367. It was also worn by Henry V. in the crown encircling his helmet at the battle of Agincourt in 1415.—Philadelphia Press.

Queen Victoria made a visit to the Trossachs in 1859. On the road between Callender and Kilmanog the Laird of Leny displayed a number of banners bearing words of welcome. But on the return to Callender the mottoes were indecipherable through the backs of the banners. Some one suggested that with a little extra expenditure "Welcome, Victoria," might have been inscribed on both sides. "There's nae need o' that," said old James Buchan of Kilmanog. That is still the national costume of the Welsh women.

A Bargain in Pearls.
Five fine pearls for 2 cents a piece was the bargain picked up by Miss Grace Lane shortly before the war broke out. Passing down a busy street in London, she saw a peddler with a trayful of pearls and a placard inscribed, "Real Pearls—Two Cents Each." Afterward she found that they were worth $50 a piece. A jeweler had hawked the pearls around to win a wager, firmly convinced that nobody would believe they were real, and so nobody would buy them.

DEEP INTEREST CENTERS IN TROOP MOBILIZATION

Fourth Regiment, Ohio Infantry, Assembles Here This Morning and Marches Out of City Shortly After Noon Hour—Scene an Inspiring One as Long Train of Troops Files Out Toward Ultimate Goal at Maple Grove.

Hundreds of local citizens watched with deep interest the mobilization of the Fourth regiment, Ohio Infantry, Monday morning, and later applauded the long columns as they swung through the city and headed out on the Chillicothe pike on the first seven mile hike to the Eyeman farm where they were to encamp for the night.

Most of the morning was taken up in the mobilization, and the small field surrounding the sales pavilion was the mobilization point.

It was on this field that the twelve companies from all over this part of Ohio, assembled and prepared for the march to Maple Grove, where several days will be spent in maneuvers.

All of the troops, including officers, were dressed in their khaki uniforms, and fully equipped for field service, with the exception that they carried no ammunition other than blanks, which will be used in the mimic warfare which will be waged, beginning with Wednesday morning.

The entire morning was taken up with final preparations, and dinner was eaten before the men formed for the seven mile march to the first camp site.

From all directions the troops came until the entire regiment of 800 men was assembled on the field at the sales barn. Here the work of loading equipment, provisions, etc., occupied the attention of many men. It was almost 12:30 when the order was given to break camp, and a few moments later the columns, led by a half score of mounted officers, pushed out into the highway and swung up through the city to the thrilling strains of martial music from the regimental band.

Company M of this city followed the band, and as the troops marched by in compact bodies, they were freely applauded on all sides until they had passed the city limits.

The entire column, including the mounted officers and the wagons laden with camp equipment, extended from the intersection of Court and Fayette streets, south on Fayette to Wesley chapel, a half mile distant.

The men carried their rolls, guns and other field equipment carried by the soldier for regular field service.

Each wagon, of which some 30 were in line, was plainly marked so that no confusion would result. Each wagon was accompanied by men whose duty it is to look after special work in connection with camp life.

Cartoonist Ireland of the Dispatch and Governor Cox's private secretary, George F. Burba, will be with the company during the encampment.

It was an inspiring spectacle when the hundreds of young men filed by, and, with the thoughts of the butchery now going on in the European nations, it was with a sigh of relief that local citizens thought of the peaceful mission upon which the fighters were bound, instead of to more realistic work.

J. W. Anderson will furnish much of the meat consumed by the troops while in camp. 13 roasts of 40 lbs. each, and a large quantity of steak, will be forwarded daily to the camp. Seven cases of eggs will also be shipped each day by Mr. Anderson. This is a very small portion of the food which will be consumed each day.

BRICK SHORTAGE CAUSE OF DELAY

A general scarcity of paving brick owing to the great demand made upon certain brick plants as a result of unprecedented amount of road paving has caused much delay in the shipment of brick for many improvements including the Main street paving in this city.

Within the next two weeks Mr. Kinnean, who is a member of the firm of contractors having the improvement in charge, expects the brick to be upon the grounds and probably most of them placed in position by that time. When the brick arrive it will require a short time only to place them in position.

Brick for the paving of the Leesburg pike are arriving slowly, but it is expected they will be ready by the time the road is prepared for them.

REMOVING DEBRIS OF COX LIVERY BARN

Monday morning workmen took up the task of clearing away the debris of the Cox Livery barn, and when final adjustment is made by the insurance men, the work of rebuilding will receive attention.

The work of removing the debris will be slow, and will not be carried out to the front portion of the building at present.

Mr. Cox has plans for a structure which will be an improvement over the old, and will rebuild as soon as possible.

PLUNGED KNIFE INTO HIS BREAST

Charles Reddick, of Bainbridge, tries to end his life after threatening life of companion—Fights physician who attends him.

“Somebody's going to be killed today!” exclaimed Charles Reddick, 27, as he staggered along the streets of Bainbridge, Sunday afternoon, with the tops of four bottles of whiskey protruding from his pockets. And a few moments later he had fallen to the street with four dangerous stab wounds in his left breast where he had plunged the keen blade of his pocketknife.

Reddick, who is a well known character in Bainbridge, had been drinking heavily, and was in a quarreling mood. He tried to pick a quarrel with a burly companion, but when his companion refused to be quarreled with, and only laughed when the man threatened his life, Reddick became desperate and in his mad wrath plunged the knife in his own breast, and then continued to hack at his chest until bystanders rushed in and tore the knife from his grasp and he fell back in a pool of blood.

He was picked up and carried to the little hovel which he called home, and a physician was summoned. It required the efforts of several men to hold him in bed while the physician dressed his wounds. He was a raving maniac and, regardless of the heavy loss of blood, fought those about him, displaying phenomenal strength.

Owing to the man's general condition it is doubtful if he will recover, and the physicians in attendance extend very little hope for the man.

State Fair Week Attraction

AT SOUTHERN THEATRE Columbus.

The biggest theatrical production ever seen in Columbus, will be at the Southern Theatre all State Fair week beginning Monday, August 31st, with matinees on Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday. This is the New York Winter Garden Company in “The Whirl of the World,” which had a continuous run of twenty-four weeks at the New York Winter Garden last winter and has been running all summer at Cohan's Grand Opera House, Chicago. The entire original cast will be at the Southern Theatre with the complete New York production including the magnificent scenic effects and extravagant ballet. This best of all New York Winter Garden productions has been seen only in New York and Chicago, and will stop at the Southern Theatre, Columbus, for State Fair week on its way from Chicago to New York. Columbus being the only city, besides New York and Chicago, that will have an opportunity of seeing this mammoth production.

The cast of principals includes Eugene and Willie Howard, Moon and Morris, John T. Murray, Beril Bartabrook, Ward Bros., Clarence Harvey, Edward Cutler, Louis J. Cody, Chapine, Juliette Lippe, Lucile Cavanaugh, Trixie Raymond, Mary Ellison and others, and the spectacular effects are startling in the extreme.

There is an unusually large chorus and ballet and in one scene the entire chorus and ballet dances out over the heads of the audience on a raised platform. Another big scene shows the huge Vaterland lying at her dock preparatory to sailing, the big vessel then pulls out with the entire company on board. Then comes the burning of a steamship at mid-ocean and the rescuing of her passengers.

Besides the exciting scenes and spectacular effects there is plenty of music and songs and fun galore, also a beautiful and well trained ballet which dances rhythmically and gaily on numerous occasions.

“The Whirl of the World” is the most stupendous production ever presented on any stage and this is the reason that it will not make a road tour, as the expense of carrying it on the road makes touring an impossibility. The Southern Theatre was able to secure this attraction at a great expense, only because it was closing its season in Chicago and was able to stop off for one week in Columbus on its way back to New York.

It is now (Aug. 1) about 221,000,000 miles away and situated about midway between Castor and Capella. It is visible all night through an ordinary telescope. It will reach its nearest to the earth on October 1, when it will be only 145,000,000 miles away and will be situated in the lower part of the Dipper or Great Bear, south of the Chariot. It will attain its greatest brilliance on Oct. 15, when it will be found in the Hunting Dog, near the beautiful star to which Halley gave the name Charles II's Heart.

By early next year the Delavan comet will pass out of sight from the northern hemisphere, but astronomers of the southern hemisphere will be able to watch it for several years. —Exchange.

DAJO KILLED AFTER INJURY

Dajo, 2:10 1/2, the black racer owned by Oscar Vallery, was killed by the use of chloroform, a day or two ago, after it was seen the animal could not recover from injuries sustained at the Clarke county fair last week, when a colt ran away and a shaft penetrated the animal's body.

On the half mile circuit in Ohio, Dajo had many friends among the race followers as the horse was always ready to do its best. It was foaled in 1905 and had been trained and raced since a two-year-old. As a four-year-old it had a record of 2:18 1/4.

The horse was trained and raced to its record in 1910 as a five-year-old by the London trainer, J. D. Creamer. During that year Dajo won seven races and out of 13 starts was inside the money on 12 occasions. The record was made at Sidney and two horses were compelled to take records of 2:09 1/4. At that time the horse was owned by Robert Mitchell, of London, but was sold to Mr. Vallery, a well known horseman, in the fall of 1911.

Dajo made his start this year at the Carthage fair, and it was Mr. Vallery's intention to race him in a number of Ohio cities this season. The loss to Mr. Vallery is a heavy one.

COLOR OF ARMY HORSES.

A Move to Have All White or Gray Mounts Discarded.

The color line is being drawn by the army in the purchase of horses. It has not been drawn in favor of white or light horses, but against them, and in favor of sorrels, browns, bays and even blacks. Because of their visibility white and gray horses are not considered desirable for mounts. In the field they are mark for sharpshooters, and on this account the quartermaster corps has stopped purchasing light colored horses. Officers are permitted to purchase gray horses if they care to take the chances of being shot in the event that they are on the firing line, but the inspector general's department has condemned the general use of gray horses in the army.

This, however, does not prevent many of the officers of the army from riding gray horses, and they have refused to draw the color line. Some of the members of the general staff are advocating the issuance of a general order prohibiting the use of gray or light colored horses in the army, as they claim that with even a few officers on light colored mounts the enemy will be able to locate a regiment or a company which might be on scout duty. The question whether a gray horse is officially regarded as a suitable mount for an officer has been the subject of lively controversy at least one army post.—Army and Navy Journal.

AN ALABASTER SPHINX.

Historic Discovery on the Ancient Plains of Memphis.

Another sphinx, weighing ninety tons and carved from a single block of alabaster, has been unearthed at a point between the world famous colossi on the water logged plains of Memphis in Egypt. For hundreds of years it has lain in a recumbent position, buried beneath the sands on the road to Sakkara. Today it is half exposed to view, and next year it is to be raised to a vertical position above the water line.

This newly found sphinx was betrayed in its hiding place by its tail, which Mr. Mackay, one of the students of the British school in Egypt, discovered about a year ago. This year, when the water on the plain subsided, the complete figure was excavated and was found to measure some fourteen feet high and twenty-six feet in length. Alabaster being a rock foreign to the neighborhood, the new sphinx ranks as the largest that has ever been transported. The figure bears no inscription, but is considered by Professor Flinders Petrie, the director of the British school in Egypt, to have been carved about 1300 B. C.—London Standard.

Cattle of Chile.

In Chile it seems to be the custom to let cattle shift for themselves, with the result that many die and others become so weak that tuberculosis and carbuncles break out year after year. It is estimated that 30 per cent of the cattle of the country die of contagious diseases, and there has been no organized effort as yet in Chile to meet these conditions.

CARDINALS IN SESSION AND SOME OF THOSE PROMINENTLY MENTIONED AS POPE'S SUCCESSOR

This illustration shows a view of the cardinals in session at the Vatican, Rome, as they will likely appear when they hold the conclave to elect a new pope to succeed the late Pope Pius X. and also some of the principal cardinals whose names have been mentioned as possible choice. When complete the college of cardinals which elects a new pope consists of seventy members. The college of 1903, which elected Pope Pius X., consisted of sixty-three members, of whom fifty-six were present at the conclave. Today there are sixty-six cardinals, of whom it is not expected that more than sixty will be present at the conclave which is to elect the successor to Pope Pius X. Besides, the present war and the chance of Italy being involved may cause the conclave to be postponed. Of the cardinals composing the present sacred college none was created by Pius IX., twenty by Leo XIII., and forty-six by Pius X. Under the late pontiff forty-six cardinals have died, of whom three were of his own creation. The nationality of the sacred college, which not infrequently plays an important part in the election of a pope, is thus distributed at present: Italian, thirty-four; French, six; Spanish, five; American, English, Austrian and Hungarian, three; German and Portuguese, two; Irish, Brazilian, Dutch, Belgian and Canadian, one.

Austria is reported to have lost several warships in a naval engagement in the Adriatic sea. Greece is reported to be sending troops into Servia to fight the Austrians.

RUSSIAN CLAIMS HEAVY LOAN TO BELGIUM

Paris, Aug. 24.—The French war ministry's official bulletin says:

The army has now taken up a position on a line extending north and south from Gumbinnen through Goldap to Lyok, at a distance of about forty kilometers from the frontier. They have overturned three army corps and have captured some more cannon and railroad rolling stock and have made quantities of prisoners. They have taken both Goldap and Lyck."

Portorio Diaz's Poetic Prophecy.

President Porfirio Diaz, who ruled over Mexico for more than a quarter of a century as an absolute dictator, believed that only such iron rule could bring peace and progress to the half-civilized millions of that country. Several years ago, when his power was still unbroken, an American who was on intimate terms with him ventured to suggest that the Mexicans were now prepared for a more liberal form of government and hinted that his rule was too severe. The stern old man stiffened his gaunt figure and ran his fingers through his locks, now white with years.

"When these snows melt," he said prophetically, "the mud will be deep in Mexico."—Youth's Companion.

An Infallible Sign.

Whenever Robert's mother went away on a visit the little fellow was so badly spoiled by a doting father and grandmother that upon her return it took several applications of the rod to mend his ways.

One day when she had been absent for a week a neighbor asked Robert when his mother was coming home.

"Oh, she'll be back very soon now," he replied. "I'm beginning to get pretty bad."—New York Post.

They Had Their Origin In Ben Franklin's Double Glasses.

Everybody who uses bifocal glasses probably wonders where the idea originally came from. Bifocal glasses are the kind that possess two separate lenses cemented together so that by looking in the upper part one can see at a great distance and by looking through the lower half one can read.

Most authorities are inclined to give Benjamin Franklin credit for the invention. He was, so the story goes, an inveterate reader and could not use his reading glasses when looking any distance away.

Finally the notion came to him that he could combine his glasses, and he thereupon had the lenses cut in half and one-half of each lens placed in the rim of each spectacle rim. The result was that a single pair of glasses was sufficient, though present day oculists state that the sharply drawn line must have affected his eyes.

From this idea the oculists gradually developed a glass in which the lower part was arranged for reading and the upper part for long distance vision, while the annoying "marking line" was eliminated.—Washington Star.

Mount Rainier's Shadows.

There are some wonderful shadow effects produced by and upon the gigantic snowy cone of Mount Rainier. It sometimes happens that the sky as seen from the city of Tacoma just before sunrise is covered with a dome of cloud 15,000 feet or more in height, while behind the peak, toward the east, the sky is clear. In such circumstances the rising sun casts the shadow of the great mountain upon the cloud curtain overhead in the form of a vast blue triangle, the point of which rests upon the apex of the peak. At other times the shadow of the earth can be seen creeping up the cone in a distinct curve, while the flush of sunset stains the snow above the line of shadow to a deep pink.

OTEY TOO MUCH OF A MYSTERY ITALIANS CAMP NEAR AUSTRIA

Twirling of Old Central Leaguer Proves an Insoluble Puzzle for Noon's Bunch—Failure on Double Play Starts Balloon Up in Eighth—Corwin Stellar Feature in Athletic Lineup—Dayton Maxwells Sunday.

Bill Otey's curves were too many for Washington Sunday. The locals found themselves up against something a little out of the ordinary when they faced the old Dayton Central league twirler in their clash with Tippecanoe City and about 75 per cent of the glory of the Tipp's victory belongs to the said Otey and his vast repertoire of twisters.

Still it was a good game. The Tipps started the picnic by putting one over in the initial inning, but failed to reach the home station again in the five following frames. Washington put two men across in the sixth and it looked like something doing when the visitors came back for another score in the seventh. The balloon went up, however, when Runnels failed to accept Winters' assist for a double play in the eighth and the two resulting scores of the visitors in that inning were increased by two more in the following. Washington managed to get another man around in the ninth. The final score stood 6 to 3 in favor of the Tipps.

Otey allowed but four hits throughout the game and retired Washington's best slingers with apparent ease. Corwin starred for Washington in the short field getting four put outs and three assists.

Next Sunday's game ought to be a hummer. Manager Noon has secured the fast Dayton Maxwells to perform on that day and the victory of this team over the Tippecanoe bunch a short time ago may be taken as an indication of good promise.

Sunday's box score follows:

FRENCH REVERSE IS ACKNOWLEDGED

Paris, Aug. 24.—The Temps prints a summary of the war situation which says:

"Our troops in Lorraine, who were violently attacked by far more numerous forces, have fallen back, leaving prisoners and some guns in the enemy's hands. We unhesitatingly affirm that there is nothing serious, nothing disturbing in any form in this movement. The chief German forces are in Belgium. If we are victorious in the great battle which has already commenced there, the Germans who have penetrated Lorraine will be rapidly withdrawn. Even an unfavorable result of the first battle need not discourage us."

Russians Advancing.

Russian troops are pushing forward toward Koenigsberg, the most important city in eastern Germany, following their victory at Gumbinnen. The Russians have occupied Insterburg, thirty miles inside the German frontier. Three army corps arrived at Insterburg to reinforce the czar's troops in their invasion. The Russians captured eight German cannon and many prisoners. On the Galician front the Austrians have suffered heavy losses. In engagements at Gorodok and Krasnik the Russians captured six officers and 250 German soldiers.

General Von Armin, commander of the German troops now occupying Brussels, issued a notice warning the population to refrain from aggressive acts against the troops. He demands of the city lodging and food supplies.

Brussels remains quiet and dignified.

The cafes are still open. Two-thirds of the shops are shut. According to the officers the objective of the German troops is Mons, but the soldiers say that certain regiments are bound for Antwerp and the northwest.

The official British news bureau issued the following statement: "The admiralty wishes to draw attention to the previous warnings to neutrals of the dangers of traversing the North Sea. The Germans are continuing their practice of scattering mines indiscriminately upon the ordinary trade routes. In consequence neutral ships, no matter what their destination, are exposed to great danger."

SERVIANS WIN

Rome, Aug. 24.—The Servian army, according to official announcements from Nish, has gained a great victory over the Austrians at Mount Pzar and the river Zadar. On the northern front there is only a feeble bombardment of Belgrade. The Servian artillery has destroyed three Austrian steamships.

ZEPPELIN DOWNED

Paris, Aug. 24.—The French war ministry issued the following: "Zeppelin No. 8 has been brought down and destroyed."

GERMANS CLAIMING VICTORIES

Washington, Aug. 24.—The German embassy here received its first reports from Germany since the cutting of the Azores cable, nearly three weeks ago. These dispatches came by wireless to Sayville, L. I., which is a German owned station. Three dispatches were received in all, two reporting victories for the German forces and the third stating that Germany had made no reply to the Japanese ultimatum.

The first dispatch was as follows: "The German guns since Friday evening have been thundering at Namur. Very soon new Zeppelins will be ready for work on the Belgian coast and the English channel. North of Metz the German army under Crown Prince William is advancing on both sides of Longwy and has defeated and forced the French back. The army under the Bavarian Crown Prince Ruprecht, which, as already reported, won a victory at Lorraine, is pursuing the beaten enemy and has reached Luneville, whence it is continuing forward today."

The second dispatch read: "Strong Russian forces have been advancing against Gumbinnen. The First German army corps turned against them Aug. 20, checked the Russians and secured 8,000 prisoners and eight guns. A German cavalry division took 500 prisoners after fighting two Russian cavalry divisions. The French attempt to invade upper Alsace was frustrated by the defenders. In Lorraine the French army is retiring from the frontier."

CABINET MAKERS CALLED TOGETHER

Convention of Three Parties at Columbus Tomorrow.

ALL CANDIDATES TO TAKE PART

Campbell Will Preside Over the Democratic Gathering, Fess Over the Republican and Sullivan Over the Progressives—Prohibition and Woman Suffrage the Big Issues Before Republicans and Democrats.

Columbus, Aug. 24.—This city will tomorrow entertain three state platform conventions of the Democratic, Progressive and Republican parties. There will be upward of 1,300 delegates in the city, consisting of candidates for state offices, candidates for members of the general assembly, chairmen of county central and county executive committees, and members of the state central and state executive committees.

The Democratic state convention will meet at Memorial hall tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. James E. Campbell will be chairman and Percy A. Walling of Circleville secretary.

The Republican meeting will be held at 10 a. m. at the Southern theater. Congressman S. E. Fess is to preside and Malcolm Jennings will be secretary.

The Progressives will gather at the Chamber of Commerce auditorium at 11:45 and John L. Sullivan of East Liverpool will be chairman and C. L. Thurber of Columbus secretary.

Recesses will be taken by the three conventions and the big events of the day will come off in the afternoon.

Congressmen to Attend.

Attending these conventions will be the respective party leaders from every nook and corner of Ohio. There will be present all three candidates for the United States senatorship, all three candidates for governor, as well as three candidates for every other place on the state ticket. It is expected that all of these candidates will have an opportunity of speaking to the crowds who are certain to attend these meetings, while the committees on credentials, resolutions, etc., are making their reports.

All of the Ohio delegation in Washington, both Democratic and Republican, will be in Columbus to attend the conventions and may be given an opportunity of addressing the conventions.

The Duckworth club of Cincinnati is coming in a special train with their own band and will help enliven the day. The Republicans and Progressives are not likely to lag behind and will arrange for music of their own.

Preliminary meetings will be held by the central and executive committees of all three parties tonight, when a part at least of the program for the conventions, which has not yet been decided upon, will be determined. The nominations having all been made, the big events of the conventions will be the platforms, for on these the candidates must stand.

Two Big Issues.

The two big issues will be woman's suffrage and the temperance issue. Large and active delegations representing each of the causes will attend the respective conventions, urging that they be favored in the platform. National issues will be considered and discussed.

A final effort to induce the Republican and Democratic state conventions to indorse equal suffrage in their platforms will be made tonight, when an open air demonstration will be held on the ground surrounding the Capitol, to which the delegates of all parties will be invited.

Dr. Washington Gladden will preside at the meeting on the west front of the building. The speakers will be Arthur L. Garford, the Progressive nominee for United States senator; Speaker Charles L. Swain of Cincinnati, representing the Democratic support of the movement, and Charles E. Belcher of Columbus, in the name of the Socialists. Mrs. Harriet Taylor Upton, president of the Ohio Suffrage association, also will be numbered among the orators. Representatives will be named to appear before the Democratic and Republican committees on resolutions.

Wayne B. Wheeler, superintendent of the Ohio Anti-Saloon league, made a statement saying the league expected all conventions to declare against the wet's proposal. The league, he said, would not demand indorsement of the pending statewide prohibition amendment.

Windy Adelle Land.

The windiest region of the world of which we have any knowledge appears to be the coast of Wilkes Land, where Dr. Mawson's expedition recently spent two years. Records at Adelle Land for 1912 showed an average wind velocity throughout the year of about forty-eight miles an hour, while velocities of 100 miles an hour were common.

The New Political Order

That will be a great gathering of the "faithful" at the capital city of the state tomorrow.

In years gone by a state convention of either one of the great political parties was considered quite an event and there was strife among the larger cities of the state for the honor of "entertaining" a state convention to say nothing of receiving the profits in dollars and cents which found its way directly into the pockets of the hotel keepers, restaurateurs and cafe proprietors and indirectly to the butchers, bakers and candlestick makers in all walks of the commercial world of the city chosen.

Columbus, Toledo, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Dayton, Akron and numerous other cities were, annually, on the ground before the committee vested with jurisdiction to choose the convention city, presenting their several claims to greatness and anxious to carry off the prize.

Nothing of that kind now.

The State convention of each and all of the three largest political parties in Ohio—Democratic, Republican and Progressive—are to be held in Columbus on the same day.

Since the adoption of the primary law and the selection of candidates on the state ticket by a direct vote of the party voters, since each candidate must declare in detail in his campaign for the party nomination, just what his political principles are and since, by their votes in the primary elections, the party voters, in a manner, declare what the party platform shall be, there is not so much uncertainty and consequently not so much interest attaching to these political gatherings which, under the primary election law, take the place of and are still known by the name of State conventions.

To be sure there is a possibility that some delegates may "jump the traces" and ramble about in political preserves which have been placarded as closed by the party voters. Such a possibility is remote and such an occurrence so improbable that it fails to excite the interest of the masses.

In the main the same old human faces and forms will be found at the State conventions tomorrow declaring the party platforms and principles—recording, so to speak, the edict of the party voters—as in the old days before the primary election law was enacted, but there will not be so many of them participating. They will not be so much in evidence except in the final results. The primary election law has not changed the actual leadership.

One thing is certain, however, and that is that the facilities for committing political suicide are much better now than ever before.

The political leader, who, having given his promise to and accepted his instructions from the party voters, dares go contrary, will be shorn of his authority in short order. While the leaders, in a measure, still lead, they are much more easy to reach and dethrone than formerly.

It took a long time to pull the leaders who defied the known will of the party voters from their places of power under the old plan. It is easy under the new plan and consequently there is much complaint about the new law on the part of the leaders and much praise for it by the party voters.

Tomorrow is a red letter day—an epoch—in the history of Ohio polities. It may mark the rise of new political stars and it may mark the setting of others, depending entirely upon the demeanor of the delegates.

There can be no doubt about the will of the party voters and any delegate to either one of the political gatherings Tuesday who undertakes to go contrary to that will must realize very soon that he has signed his political death warrant.

There is to be no sidestepping, no jockeying.

Explanations which do not explain and political trickery which amounts to downright dishonesty will not be available to stay the avenging hand of the party voters as they were formerly.

It's a plain case of obeying orders or suffering the consequences.

Racial Pride Involved In War Between Austria and Servia

By WILLIAM W. ROCKHILL, Former United States Ambassador to Russia and Turkey

WAR BETWEEN AUSTRIA AND SERVIA IS BUT A NATURAL RESULT OF THE AGITATION LOOKING TO THE COMBINING OF THE SLAV ELEMENTS INTO A KINGDOM OF THEIR OWN. IT IS A RACIAL QUESTION—THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE CREATION OF NATIONALITIES THAT HAS BEEN COMING ON FOR YEARS. NATIONAL HONOR AND RACIAL PRIDE ARE INVOLVED.

If Austria carries her point and crushes the southern Slavs it will be hard for Russia to bear, and I doubt if the Slavs can be kept down permanently. Russia is their great protector. She has a sentimental interest in them as well as a political one.

FAITH'S SUPREMACY.

I opened wide the portal of my heart
Love's coming to forestall;
Then sat me down, a little way apart,
Content withal.

Hope, peeping through, beheld the
speeding day,
And ventured through,
In vain I called her footsteps to allay,
As on she flew.

Then turning back, I saw within my heart

Fear crouching low.
"I always come," he said, "when
hope departs.
Law plans it so."

"Nay, if you come, I go," I cried, and

Until I spied
Faith standing so serene and glad,
My steps to guide.

Gently she turned my feet and led me
back so calmly home.
And lo! there Love and Hope in wait-

And fear had gone.

The present crown of the English king was originally made for Queen Victoria at her coronation in 1838. The principal jewels were taken from older crowns. HER NAME'S SHADOW

It Melted Away Before the Bright Sun of Love.

By ESTHER SANGBORN.

If she had not been named Beryl perhaps Miss Stanhope would not have thought herself so hopelessly plain, so thoroughly and utterly unattractive. But that name—so beautiful, so poetical, sounding like an utterance in one short burning word of a womanly beauty almost divine—was as a curse to her.

It made her morbid. She shivered lest people learn it and smile at the incongruity.

Superconscious of her angles, her lack of color and dark circled eyes, reflected in every shop window, Beryl wondered why she had been named so incongruously. She almost cried when a wizened old woman with a parchment skin, in charge of a fruit stand, answered to the name of Violet. What would she, Beryl Stanhope, be like twenty-five years hence?

She could not free herself from the tormenting thought. In old age, with ugliness intensified, she must still hear the musical Beryl applied to her, a name designed for a round, milk skin creature, with hair like corn silk and eyes the color of a calm sea, the cool, restful blue that is more nearly green.

She was reasoning to silence her ever renewed womanly hunger for beauty of person when she tapped at the studio shared by her brother and Lindley Wood. Her brother was out, but Wood was painting feverishly, a seldom seen exultation on his serious face.

"Come in, Miss Stanhope," he called hospitably. "Dick will be back in a jiffy. We are both making hay while the sun shines this week. Miss Cuyler is kindly posing for us, and she leaves the city Monday.

Beryl had not glanced at the model throne, but at this she turned quickly and caught her breath with a little gasp. A girl with the sheen of corn silk in her hair and eyes like a lapis lazuli sea was silhouetted against a background of pale green plush.

A sharp pain that Beryl did not know was envy shot to her heart as she drank in the sumptuous coloring of the nonchalant beauty. Recovering her composure with an effort, she returned Miss Cuyler's greeting and stepped forward.

"Are you and Dick working on one theme, Mr. Wood?" she asked. "May I see?"

"Not one theme," answered Wood. "Dick is doing an Andromache, but mine is only a study, an ideal head. I'll be very glad of your criticism, Miss Stanhope. My work fails to satisfy me."

Lindley Wood's pictures usually received praise from his friend's sister, but for once there was no exclamatory remarks. After a long look she drew back a step with heightened color.

"Wherefore the name?" she asked haughtily.

"Beryl?" said Wood unconcernedly, touching up the round white throat on his canvas. "That is just a fancy of mine. Haven't you names to fit your ideal types? I would not think of painting a blond Judith or a dark Rosamond. I've always had a liking for the name of Beryl"—with boyish eagerness—and Miss Cuyler happens to look my conception of it. Do you like the pose?"

"Very much," she replied, thankful she could say so honestly. But there was a strange inflection in her voice, despite her effort. Lindley Wood's keen ear caught it, and he responded with swift artistic intuition.

"You see something wrong with it?" he exclaimed. "I want to know what it is. Be frank and tell me why you do not like my Beryl."

The living Beryl trembled foolishly as she buttoned her coat. "Seek to please the institute committee, not me," she laughed. "My opinion is not worth that doleful expression, Mr. Wood. Tell Dick I shall expect him early." And, with a nod that included the model, she left the room.

Over their tête-à-tête dinner that night Beryl tried to question her brother about Lindley Wood's interest in Miss Cuyler. But she could not. Her brother had been strangely preoccupied of late, and table conversation was monosyllabic.

"Wood hasn't been here for some time," he remarked suddenly, and Beryl, surprised in her thoughts, was glad that the doorbell spared her a reply. When Dick returned his friend's name was not mentioned.

Beryl sat reading in the little parlor when her brother went out "to pay some calls," he said evasively. When the door closed behind him she dropped her book and assumed ease.

Pacing up and down the rooms, she assured herself that she would go to work at something presently and forget the episode. But, try as she would, her heart was filled with bitterness that her brother's friend—her friend, too, who had once thought—should have been so heartless, so utterly contemptuous of her, as to paint an ideal Beryl.

"He could not have told me my shortcomings more brutally in plain words," whispered she passionately.

Then, seeing something white on the hall rug, she stooped and picked up a card. "Edith Cuyler," she read—her

One Way to View It.

Queen Victoria made a visit to the Trotsachs in 1859. On the road between Callender and Kilmanog the Laird of Leny displayed a number of banners bearing words of welcome. But on the return to Callender the mottoes were indecipherable through the backs of the banners. Some one suggested that with a little extra expenditure "Welcom, Victoria," might have been inscribed on both sides. "There's no need of that," said old James Buchan of Kilmanog. Welsh National Costume.

When the French made a half-hearted attempt to invade Great Britain in 1797 a landing was made at Fishguard, Wales, but the soldiers of Napoleon were frightened off by the sight of a great number of Welsh girls and women, whom they mistook at a distance for soldiers on account of their red dresses and tall black hats. That is still the national costume of the Welsh women.

DEEP INTEREST CENTERS IN TROOP MOBILIZATION

Fourth Regiment, Ohio Infantry, Assembles Here This Morning and Marches Out of City Shortly After Noon Hour—Scene an Inspiring One as Long Train of Troops Files Out Toward Ultimate Goal at Maple Grove.

Hundreds of local citizens watched with deep interest the mobilization of the Fourth regiment, Ohio Infantry, Monday morning, and later applauded the long columns as they swung through the city and headed out on the Chillicothe pike on the first seven mile hike to the Eyeman farm where they were to encamp for the night.

Most of the morning was taken up in the mobilization, and the small field surrounding the sales pavilion was the mobilization point.

It was on this field that the twelve companies from all over this part of Ohio, assembled and prepared for the march to Maple Grove, where several days will be spent in maneuvers.

All of the troops, including officers, were dressed in their khaki uniforms, and fully equipped for field service, with the exception that they carried no ammunition other than blanks, which will be used in the mimic warfare which will be waged, beginning with Wednesday morning.

The entire morning was taken up with final preparations, and dinner was eaten before the men formed for the seven mile march to the first camp site.

From all directions the troops came until the entire regiment of 800 men was assembled on the field at the sales barn. Here the work of loading equipment, provisions, etc., occupied the attention of many men.

It was almost 12:30 when the order

PACKED TRAIN IN SARDINE FASHION

A large number of persons who rode the D. T. & I. excursion train Sunday, were very much disgusted with the accommodations offered by the road, in failing to provide sufficient cars to handle the large number of excursionists and regular passengers who traveled on the train from Springfield to Jackson and intermediate points.

It was necessary to add an additional coach before half the journey to Jackson was completed, and then many persons were forced to stand in the aisles.

On the return journey the cars were very poorly lighted, some coaches having one or two sickly oil flames which threatened to disappear with every lurch of the train.

It is claimed that it is not an uncommon occurrence for the excursion train to be packed as the train was Sunday.

CORN CUTTING IS NOW NEAR AT HAND

Corn cutting is once more near at hand, and will open in this county some time between the 1st of September and 15th of September, possibly the second week in September.

The crop will be a good one throughout the county, although it is not pronounced a record-breaker. In most instances the crop was little injured by the drought.

In some of the adjoining counties the damage by drought has been much more pronounced than in this county.

BRICK SHORTAGE CAUSE OF DELAY

A general scarcity of paving brick owing to the great demand made upon certain brick plants as a result of unprecedented amount of road paving has caused much delay in the shipment of brick for many improvements including the Main street paving in this city.

Within the next two weeks Mr. Kinnear, who is a member of the firm of contractors having the improvement in charge, expects the brick to be upon the grounds and probably most of them placed in position by that time. When the brick arrive it will require a short time only to place them in position.

Brick for the paving of the Leesburg pike are arriving slowly, but it is expected they will be ready by the time the road is prepared for them.

REMOVING DEBRIS OF COX LIVERY BARN

Monday morning workmen took up the task of clearing away the debris of the Cox Livery barn, and when final adjustment is made by the insurance men, the work of rebuilding will receive attention.

The work of removing the debris will be slow, and will not be carried out to the front portion of the building at present.

Mr. Cox has plans for a structure which will be an improvement over the old, and will rebuild as soon as possible.

USES SHOT GUN TO PEPPER HIS UNRULY SON-IN-LAW

Lee Colvin, residing about two miles from Williamsport, is in the Pickaway county jail charged with wounding his son-in-law, Will Brown by peppering him with a shot gun during a squabble Sunday afternoon.

Brown was not seriously injured by the shot, a half dozen of which struck him, but is suffering from a gash several inches in length which was inflicted in his leg, presumably by an axe with which he was trying to strike his father-in-law.

It is claimed that the men had been drinking, and became angered over some trifling difference. Brown seized an axe and attempted to kill Colvin. Colvin rushed in and Brown, losing control of the axe, buried the keen blade in his own leg, it is claimed by Colvin. Brown claims his popper-in-law slashed him with a knife, but this Colvin denies, although the officers found a knife at the Colvin home.

Brown nearly bled to death before a physician reached him. The men are from Kentucky or West Virginia, and when drinking are quarrelsome.

It is claimed that Colvin acted in self defense. Colvin snapped the gun thrice before it exploded, and had the weapon exploded the first time Brown would have been a dead man.

The cast of principals includes Eugene and Willie Howard, Moon and Morris, John T. Murray, Berl Barbareto, Ward Bros., Clarence Harvey, Edward Cutler, Louis J. Cody, Chapine, Juliette Lippe, Lucile Cavanaugh, Trixie Raymond, Mary Ellison and others, and the spectacular effects are startling in the extreme.

There is an unusually large chorus and ballet and in one scene the entire chorus and ballet dances out over the heads of the audience on a raised platform.

Another big scene shows the huge Vaterland lying at her dock preparatory to sailing, the big vessel then pulls out with the entire company on board. Then comes the burning of a steamship at mid-ocean and the rescuing of her passengers.

Besides the exciting scenes and spectacular effects there is plenty of music and songs and fun galore, also a beautiful and well trained ballet which dances rhythmically and gaily on numerous occasions.

"The Whirl of the World" is the most stupendous production ever presented on any stage and this is the reason that it will not make a road tour, as the expense of carrying it on the road makes touring an impossibility.

The Southern Theatre was able to secure this attraction at a great expense, only because it was closing its season in Chicago and was able to stop off for one week in Columbus on its way back to New York.

REGULAR ARMY MAN AFTER MORE HORSES

A remarkable comet is being watched now by astronomers. It was discovered on Dec. 17 by Prof. Delavan at the La Plata (Argentina) Observatory and has been called by his name and also "1913 F".

It is remarkable chiefly for the length of time that it will be visible. Prof. G.

Van Busbrouck of the Uccle (Belgium) Observatory says it may be visible until 1919. Its luminosity is unusually high, and by October next it ought to be distinguishable to the naked eye, although then only the same apparent size as a star of the sixth magnitude.

It is now (Aug. 1) about 221,000,

000 miles away and situated about midway between Castor and Capella.

It is visible all night through an ordinary telescope.

It will reach its nearest to the earth on October 1,

when it will be only 145,000,000 miles away and will be situated in the lower part of the Dipper or Great Bear, south of the Chariot. It will attain its greatest brilliance on Oct.

15, when it will be found in the Hunting Dog, near the beautiful star to which Halley gave the name

Charles II.'s Heart.

By early next year the Delavan comet will pass out of sight from the northern hemisphere, but astronomers of the southern hemisphere will be able to watch it for several years.

PLUNGED KNIFE INTO HIS BREAST

Charles Reddick, of Bainbridge, Tried to End His Life After Threatening Life of Companion—Fights Physician Who Attends Him.

Somebody's going to be killed today!" exclaimed Charles Reddick, 27, as he staggered along the streets of Bainbridge, Sunday afternoon, with the tops of four bottles of whiskey protruding from his pockets. And a few moments later he had fallen to the street with four dangerous stab wounds in his left breast where he had plunged the keen blade of his pocketknife.

Reddick, who is a well known character in Bainbridge, had been drinking heavily, and was in a quarrelsome mood. He tried to pick a quarrel with a burly companion, but when his companion refused to be quarreled with, and only laughed when the man threatened his life, Reddick became desperate and in his mad wrath plunged the knife in his own breast, and then continued to hack at his chest until bystanders rushed in and tore the knife from his grasp and he fell back in a pool of blood.

He was picked up and carried to the little hotel which he called home, and a physician was summoned. It required the efforts of several men to hold him in bed while the physician dressed his wounds. He was a raving maniac and, regardless of the heavy loss of blood, fought those about him, displaying phenomenal strength.

Owing to the man's general condition it is doubtful if he will recover, and the physicians in attendance extend very little hope for the man.

State Fair Week Attraction

AT SOUTHERN THEATRE Columbus.

The biggest theatrical production ever seen in Columbus, will be at the Southern Theatre all State Fair week beginning Monday, August 31st, with matinees on Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday. This is the New York Winter Garden Company in "The Whirl of the World," which had a continuous run of twenty-four weeks at the New York Winter Garden last winter and has been running all summer at Cohan's Grand Opera House, Chicago. The entire original cast will be at the Southern Theatre with the complete New York production including the magnificent scenic effects and extravagant ballet. This best of all New York Winter Garden productions has been seen only in New York and Chicago, and will stop at the Southern Theatre, Columbus, for State Fair week on its way from Chicago to New York, Columbus being the only city, besides New York and Chicago, that will have an opportunity of seeing this mammoth production.

The cast of principals includes Eugene and Willie Howard, Moon and Morris, John T. Murray, Berl Barbareto, Ward Bros., Clarence Harvey, Edward Cutler, Louis J. DIET AND DIGESTION.

Length of Time Different Foods Remain in the Stomach.

Few people could make an accurate guess as to the length of time different foods remain in the stomach. The popular ideas as to what are the most digestible foods are all wrong, or nearly so. In eating chicken, for instance, one imagines that he is sure of a rapid digestion, and yet chicken meat remains in the stomach, under normal conditions, for four hours. Duck, which is generally supposed to be much more difficult to digest than chicken, remains for only two hours.

A hard boiled egg lasts for four hours, which is much longer than the average, whereas boiled fish remains for only an hour and a half.

It is a very common mistake to suppose that well boiled beef is very easily digested, while as a matter of fact it remains in the stomach for six hours, which is longer than any other common article of food. Tripe, on the other hand, remains for only one hour in the stomach and is one of the easiest of all foods to digest.

A period of one and a half hours is required for apples, celery, cheese and oysters, while twice this time is required by rye bread, onions, sausage or raw milk. —Boston Herald.

Something Suitable.

"When a statesman has something to say, let him say it," said a congressman. "But this continual getting up and talking on every subject under the sun just for the sake of getting one's name in the papers—well, that sort of thing gives statesmanship a bad name.

"In that case, sir," said the jeweler, "you will want something with a long spout." —Chicago Herald.</

DAJO KILLED AFTER INJURY

Dajo, 2:10 1/2, the black racer owned by Oscar Vallery, was killed by the use of chloroform, a day or two ago, after it was seen the animal could not recover from injuries sustained at the Clarke county fair last week, when a colt ran away and a shaft penetrated the animal's body.

On the half mile circuit in Ohio, Dajo had many friends among the race followers as the horse was always ready to do its best. It was foaled in 1905 and had been trained and raced since a two-year-old. As a four-year-old it had a record of 2:18 1/4.

The horse was trained and raced to its record in 1910 as a five-year-old by the London trainer, J. D. Creamer. During that year Dajo won seven races and out of 13 starts was inside the money on 12 occasions. The record was made at Sidney and two horses were compelled to take records of 2:09 1/4. At that time the horse was owned by Robert Miteh, of London, but was sold to Mr. Vallery, a well known horseman, in the fall of 1911.

Dajo made his start this year at the Carthage fair, and it was Mr. Vallery's intention to race him in a number of Ohio cities this season. The loss to Mr. Vallery is a heavy one.

COLOR OF ARMY HORSES.

A Move to Have All White or Gray Mounts Discarded.

The color line is being drawn by the army in the purchase of horses. It has not been drawn in favor of white or light horses, but against them, and in favor of sorrels, browns, bays and even blacks. Because of their visibility white and gray horses are not considered desirable for mounts. In the field they are a mark for sharpshooters, and on this account the quartermaster corps has stopped purchasing light colored horses. Officers are permitted to purchase gray horses if they care to take the chances of being shot in the event that they are on the firing line, but the inspector general's department has condemned the general use of gray horses in the army.

This, however, does not prevent many of the officers of the army from riding gray horses, and they have refused to draw the color line. Some of the members of the general staff are advocating the issuance of a general order prohibiting the use of gray or light colored horses in the army, as they claim that with even a few officers on light colored mounts the enemy will be able to locate a regiment or a company which might be on scout duty. The question whether a gray horse is officially regarded as a suitable mount for an officer has been the subject of lively controversy at at least one army post.—Army and Navy Journal.

AN ALABASTER SPHINX.

Historic Discovery on the Ancient Plains of Memphis.

Another sphinx, weighing ninety tons and carved from a single block of alabaster, has been unearthed at a point between the world famous colossi on the water logged plains of Memphis in Egypt. For hundreds of years it has lain in a recumbent position, buried beneath the sands on the road to Sakkara. Today it is half exposed to view, and next year it is to be raised to a vertical position above the water line.

This newly found sphinx was betrayed in its hiding place by its tail, which Mr. Mackay, one of the students of the British school in Egypt, discovered about a year ago. This year, when the water on the plain subsided, the complete figure was excavated and was found to measure some fourteen feet high and twenty-six feet in length. Alabaster being a rock foreign to the neighborhood, the new sphinx ranks as the largest that has ever been transported. The figure bears no inscription, but is considered by Professor Flinders Petrie, the director of the British school in Egypt, to have been carved about 1,300 B. C.—London Standard.

Cattle of Chile.

In Chile it seems to be the custom to let cattle sift for themselves, with the result that many die and others become so weak that tuberculosis and carbuncle work havoc year after year. It is estimated that 30 per cent of the cattle of the country die of contagious diseases, and there has been no organized effort as yet in Chile to meet these conditions.

KIAUCHAU JAPAN'S OBJECTIVE

German Territory in China to Be Attacked at Once by the Oriental Power's Army and Navy—Operations to Be Restricted to Mainland of China and the China Sea—Tokyo to Make Public Her Correspondence With England.

Tokyo, Aug. 24.—Japan began war on Germany Sunday with an order to the Japanese army and navy to capture Kiauchau, Germany's Chinese possession, immediately.

Official news of the situation of the Japanese fleet and transports is lacking, but because of the preparations which have been in progress since Japan sent her ultimatum to the kaiser's government last Sunday, it is believed

DEFY JAPS

FRENCH AGGRESSIVE

Paris, Aug. 24.—Official statements made say that French forces are taking the offensive at Charleroi and are pushing forward to check the German advance toward Dinant and Lille. According to the French official communiqué these French operations are meeting with success.

SECURE SUPPLIES

Philadelphia, Aug. 24.—Steamers arriving here reported the North German Lloyd steamer Brandenburg had met a German cruiser just outside the Delaware breakwater, presumably the Bremen, and was transferring coal and general stores.

TEASE ITALY

Rome, Aug. 24.—It is reported here that Austria is exerting all the pressure possible to force Italy into the present war on the side of Germany and Austria, thus maintaining the triple alliance.

EXEMPT FROM CIVIL SERVICE

Columbus, Aug. 24.—Unskilled labor employed in the state highway department will for a time be exempt from the noncompetitive examinations of the state civil service commission. A decision to this effect was reached and announced in a letter to State Highway Commissioner James R. Marker by S. A. Hoskins, president of the civil service commission.

DEAD IN WAGON

Lancaster, O., Aug. 24.—Andrew Wilburn, forty, of Logan, was found dead in a wagon on the edge of the city, while his six-year-old son watched over the body. The boy said that someone had struck his father over the head. Examination failed to reveal any mark from a blow, however.

Working Butter.

Butter is worked enough when the salt is evenly distributed. Just when this point has been reached cannot always be told from the appearance of the butter immediately after working. But butter that has not been sufficiently worked will show white streaks or mottles after five or six hours. Whenever such streaks occur the butter must be reworked until all the streaks have been removed. To avoid mottled or streaky butter the only safe rule to follow is to work the butter twice. The first time it is worked lightly, just enough to fairly distribute the salt. It is then allowed to stand six hours or longer, when white streaks will be noticeable. The butter is then worked again until the color is uniform.—Chicago News.

KAISER PLAYS HIDE AND SEEK

Rotterdam, Holland, Aug. 24.—Soon after leaving Brussels and making a feint toward Ghent, the Germans suddenly turned toward the southwest against Lille. German strategists regard this move, together with the march on Valenciennes, as a surprise for the allies, and believe that it will oblige them to change their front.

CARDINALS IN SESSION AND SOME OF THOSE PROMINENTLY MENTIONED AS POPE'S SUCCESSOR

This illustration shows a view of the cardinals in session at the Vatican, Rome, as they will likely appear when they hold the conclave to elect a new pope to succeed the late Pope Pius X. The college of cardinals which elects a new pope consists of seventy members. The college of 1903, which elected Pope Pius X., consisted of sixty-three members, of whom fifty-six were present at the conclave. Today there are sixty-six cardinals, of whom it is not expected that more than sixty will be present at the conclave which is to elect the successor to Pope Pius X. Besides, the present war and the chance of Italy being involved may cause the conclave to be postponed. Of the cardinals composing the present sacred college none was created by Pius IX., twenty by Leo XIII., and forty-six by Pius X. Under the late pontiff forty-six cardinals have died, of whom three were of his own creation. The nationality of the sacred college, which not infrequently plays an important part in the election of a pope, is thus distributed at present: Italian, thirty-four; French, six; Spanish, five; American, English, Austrian and Hungarian, three; German and Portuguese, two; Irish, Brazilian, Dutch, Belgian and Canadian, one.

ITALIAN ARMY IS MOBILIZING

Rome, Aug. 24.—Relations between Italy and Austria are almost at the breaking point. Italy's army probably will complete mobilization by Aug. 27. Austria is declared to be exerting all possible pressure to force Italy to enter the war on the side of the now disrupted triple alliance. France and Russia have sent, respectively, Théophile Delcasse and Count Witte, their most distinguished diplomats, to counteract the Austrian solicitations.

Austria is reported to have lost several warships in a naval engagement in the Adriatic sea. Greece is reported to be sending troops into Servia to fight the Austrians.

AUTOS COLLIDE

Findlay, O., Aug. 24.—Four women were injured when two automobiles attempted to pass on a road between Arlington and Mt. Blanchard and collided. The two men drivers of the machines escaped with bruises. The injured: Mrs. R. M. Lee, Mt. Blanchard; Miss Fannie Bowman, Arlington; Miss Stella Garlington, Arlington; Miss Pansy Moore, Arlington.

WOMAN IN BAD

Bellefontaine, O., Aug. 24.—Mrs. Ida Dixon, forty-two, is in jail here, being held to the grand jury on a charge of having taken a $500 diamond ring from Dr. Frederick Waterbury, who owns a hotel at Indian Lake park.

A True Courtier.

Upon his arrival at the court of Vienna a former French ambassador was presented to the empress, who was aware that the day before he had visited the beautiful Countess X.

"Is it true," she asked, "that the Countess X. is the most lovely woman in Europe?"

"I thought so yesterday, your majesty," replied the diplomat, with a graceful bow.

Concert Pitch.

HEAVY LOAN TO BELGIUM

Paris, Aug. 24.—France and England have decided to advance $100,000,000 to Belgium, half of the amount to be furnished by each of the two countries. Belgium has been officially informed of the decision.

Infielders and Outfielders.

It would take modern Solomon to select the premier ball player from the galaxy of headliners. Leaving out the twirlers and the heavy stickers, and taking only the field work of the players at large into consideration, I have found that a majority of fans agree on the proposition that infielders are more useful than outfielders, and that, if a man to stand at the head of the baseball class is selected for his general usefulness, he will be chosen from among the men covering first, second, third or short. Take Cobb and Collins, for instance, who are wonders at fielding their positions. Last year Cobb had 300 chances to retire batters and Collins had 804. Speaker, out among the daisies, had 488 opportunities to make errors, while Weaver had 980, and McInnes 1,595 chances.—Ed A. Goewey in Leslie's.

OFFICER KILLED

Paris, Aug. 24.—The son of ex-Emperor Clemenceau, now with the French army in Belgium, has shot and killed a German officer in a fierce hand-to-hand encounter and himself was wounded in the thigh.

OTEY TOO MUCH ITALIANS CAMP OF A MYSTERY NEAR AUSTRIA

By Associated Press.

Twirling of Old Central Leaguer Proves an Insoluble Puzzle for Geneva's Bunch—Failure on Double Play Starts Balloon Up in Eighth—Corwin Stellar Feature in Athletic Lineup—Dayton Maxwells Sunday.

Bill Otey's curves were too many for Washington Sunday. The locals found themselves up against something a little out of the ordinary when they faced the old Dayton Central league twirler in their clash with Tippecanoe City and about 75 percent of the glory of the Tipp's victory belongs to the said Otey and his vast repertoire of twisters.

Still it was a good game. The Tipps started the picnic by putting one over in the initial inning, but failed to reach the home station again in the five following frames. Washington put two men across in the sixth and it looked like something doing when the visitors came back for another score in the seventh. The balloon went up, however, when Runnels failed to accept Winters' assist for a double play in the eighth and the two resulting scores of the visitors in that inning were increased by two more in the following. Washington managed to get another man around in the ninth. The final score stood 6 to 3 in favor of the Tipps.

Otey allowed but four hits throughout the game and retired Washington's best slingers with apparent ease. Corwin starred for Washington in the short field getting four put outs and three assists.

Next Sunday's game ought to be a hummer. Manager Noon has secured the fast Dayton Maxwells to perform on that day and the victory of this team over the Tippecanoe bunch a short time ago may be taken as an indication of good promise.

Sunday's box score follows:
